

At big shows each stable puts up a portable tackroom, which is like a tent on a frame. Sometimes all the stalls may be decorated, too. Each stable has its own colors, like red and white, blue and green, or gold and brown. Choose a name for this stable, write it on the banner over the door, and color everything in your favorite colors.